CHAMPAGNE

One of the most northern wine producing regions in the world, Champagne is located 90 miles north-east of Paris with 34,000 hectares of vines. Surrounding the Champagne hubs of Epernay and Reims, the region produces around a million bottles of Champagne a day.

CHAMPAGNE

A technique said to have been invented by Dom Pérignon in 1688, Champagne is made using the traditional method whereby a second fermentation is induced in the bottle, producing CO<sup>2</sup> which becomes trapped, resulting in a sparkling wine. Champagne style wines are now replicated all over the world.

These premium wines are usually made from a blend of grapes: Chardonnay to add fruit and elegance; the red grapes, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, for body and backbone.

Billecart-Salmon
Extra Brut Vintage
2008
93pts
Wine Spectator

"A graceful Champagne that swathes the palate in a fine and creamy mousse, carrying flavors of baked blackberry, lemon meringue pie and chopped almond. Vibrant acidity creates a mouthwatering impression on the minerally finish."

BILLECART-SALMON

Still family run, the small house of Billecart-Salmon offers a range of black-grape-dominated Champagnes with bright, complex fruit flavours resulting from a long, slow, cool fermentation process. Particularly well known for its elegant Rosé, Billecart-Salmon is a Champagne house for wine lovers: many who discover it drink few other Champagnes thereafter.

Billecart-Salmon Brut Le Réserve	NV	€43.00
Billecart-Salmon Extra Brut Vintage	2008/9	€69.00
Billecart-Salmon Brut Rosé	NV	€66.00

BOLLINGER

Bollinger has been making classic, Pinot-dominated Champagnes with great ageing potential and complexity since 1829. The house style is deliberately oxidative with much of the wine (all of the vintage and reserve wines, and a high proportion of Special Cuvée) being fermented in old oak barrels, resulting in rich toast, apple and spice flavours. A proportion of the reserve wines are aged in magnums under cork keeping the aromas and flavours fresh and helping to make Special Cuvée one of the most complex Non-Vintage Champagnes around.

Bollinger Special Cuvée	NV	€53.00
Bollinger La Grande Année	2014/15	€157.00
Bollinger Rosé	NV	€68.00
Bollinger La Grande Année Rosé	2014/15	€185.00

2014
98pts
Vinous

"The 2014 La Grande Année is stunning. In fact, it is one of the best recent editions I can remember tasting. What comes through most is the wine's sizzling energy and tension, qualities that aren't often associated with Bollinger, where the Champagnes tend to show more breadth and volume. In 2014, readers will find a Grande Année built on linear intensity and drive."

2008

The Wine Advocate

"The 2008 Dom Pérignon Rosé continues to drink brilliantly, exhibiting aromas of orange, red berries, pear, pastry, spices and some smoke with time in the glass. Full-bodied, charming, broad and fleshy, with pristine balance, it's a seamless, complete and vinous Champagne of compelling purity and maturity."

Rosé Réserve
NV
93pts
Wine Spectator

"An elegant version, with the fine, airy mousse tempering the impact of the chiseled acidity and together creating a fine frame for notes of roasted pistachio, baked yellow peach and candied pink grapefruit peel. Everything is underscored by a streak of salinity that pushes through on the finish, joining accents of white blossoms, ground ginger and anise."

Krug
Grande Cuvée
NV
96pts
Wine Spectator

"A vivid Champagne, with chiseled acidity and a fine, vivacious mousse creating a buoyant frame for layered flavors of crushed black raspberry, grilled nuts, pink grapefruit sorbet and coffee liqueur, plus fragrant accents of ground ginger and anise, graphite and lime blossoms. Long and expressive on the finish, crackling with a lingering fleur de sel note."

DOM PERIGNON

Dom Pérignon, owned by Moët & Chandon, is an exclusively vintage prestige cuvée Champagne. It is made from roughly equal quantities (varying slightly according to the vintage) of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, grown only in the best vineyard sites in Champagne. During production, the wine sees no oak and is protected from oxidation as much as possible making it one of Champagne's most reductive, minerally styles with an overarching elegance, harmony and completeness. It is one of the most classic, famous, and eye-catching of all wines and consistently tastes as good as its reputation suggests it will.

Dom Pérignon	2013/15	€235.00
Dom Pérignon Magnum	2010/12	€559.00

CHARLES HEIDSIECK

Charles Heidsieck founded his eponymous Champagne house in 1851 at the age of 29. He is credited with popularising Champagne in the United States where he became hugely popular and earned the nickname 'Champagne Charlie'. The consistent high quality of the wines means their range is one of the most frequently awarded in Champagne.

Charles Heidsieck Brut Réserve	NV	€40.00
Charles Heidsieck Rosé Réserve	NV	€56.00

KRUG

Krug is the only Champagne house to have created a prestige cuvée every year since it was founded in 1843. The house's flagship wine, Grande Cuvée, typically contains 35-50% reserve wines chosen from an extensive library of 150 different wines across more than 10 vintages. With fermentation in neutral oak barrels and ageing on the lees well beyond the legal minimum, the wines have incredible depth, richness and complexity and a unique personality all of their own.

Krug Vintage	2000	€475.00
Krug Vintage	2004/6	€385.00

Cristal
2008
99pts
Vinous

"The 2008 Cristal is just fabulous. Chiseled and nuanced to the core, the 2008 possesses dazzling intensity from start to finish. Crushed rocks, lemon peel, graphite, mint, lime, chalk and white flowers all race across the palate. This is classic Cristal in a cool, late-ripening year."

LAURENT-PERRIER

Chardonnay forms the core of most of Laurent-Perrier's cuvées giving the wines a fresh, elegant style. The exception to this is their Cuvée Rosé, for which the house is best known. Made from 100% Pinot Noir, it is unusual in that it is made by the tricky 'saignée' method. This is the technique by which the pink colour is obtained through maceration of the skins rather than the addition of red wine (the way most rosé Champagnes are made) and gives Laurent-Perrier Rosé its remarkable flavour.

Laurent-Perrier La Cuvée Brut	NV	€46.00
Laurent-Perrier Grand Siècle	NV	€195.00
Laurent-Perrier Cuvée Rosé	NV	€82.00

MOËT &amp; CHANDON

Creating a true slice of Champagne, Moët & Chandon brings the characteristics of all three varieties, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, into their blends. The wines are vinified non-oxidatively in stainless steel and undergo malolactic fermentation, giving them a soft, light, approachable style with a universal appeal that has made Moët & Chandon the world's most popular Champagne.

LOUIS ROEDERER

Most famous for their prestige cuvée Cristal which was first created in 1876 for the Tsar of Russia, Alexander II, the house of Louis Roederer is known for the sheer quality and style of their wines across the range. Roederer is the largest owner of organically-farmed (and increasingly, biodynamically-farmed) vineyards in Champagne. The wines are distinguished by their superb balance, finesse and elegance and their fine, creamy mousse.

CHAMPAGNE

Ruinart Rosé
NV

93pts
Wine Spectator

"Sleek and minerally, this is satiny on the palate, with racy drive to the flavors of macerated raspberry, pomegranate puree, almond financier and pickled ginger. A zesty hint of blood orange granita lingers on the finish."

Taittinger Comtes de Champagne Rosé
2007

96pts
The Wine Advocate

"A complex bouquet of blood orange, minty raspberries, red plums, dried flowers and warm brioche. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, chalky and tensile, sharing a racy, chiseled profile with its Blanc de Blancs cousin. Deep, concentrated and tightly wound, the wine concludes with a long, sapid finish. This is an intense, racy Comtes Rosé with a long future ahead of it."

Veuve Clicquot La Grande Dame
2015

95pts
Wine Spectator

"This graceful Champagne offers hints of smoke and toasted brioche that transition to patisserie apple and blackberry fruit, candied ginger and mandarin orange peel notes. Seamlessly knit and mouthwatering, with a minerally underpinning and a finely detailed, dotted bead. Lush and creamy on the vibrant, lasting finish."

RUINART

Ruinart is Champagne's oldest house, with a history dating back to 1729. The Chardonnay grape is at the heart of all Ruinart's wines giving them freshness and bright fruit aromas. The wines, vinified non-oxidatively in stainless steel, have a minerally character in youth, developing toasty, smoky characteristics with bottle age.

R de Ruinart Brut	NV	€62.00
Ruinart Blanc de Blancs	NV	€88.00
Ruinart Rosé	NV	€88.00

SALON

Salon is a tiny house producing what connoisseurs consider to be the quintessential Blanc de Blancs. In minuscule amounts (30,000 bottles a year, if at all) from over 35-year-old vines in Le Mesnil-sur-Oger (one of the greatest crus of the Côte des Blancs), Salon releases on average only about 3 times a decade.

Salon "S" Le Mesnil Blanc de Blancs	2013	€1,460.00
Salon "S" Le Mesnil Blanc de Blancs Magnum	2008	€7,475.00

Food pairing suggestion

Try with aged comté or panfried foie gras, especially with a truffle jus.

TAITTINGER

In a beautiful twist on the norm, the Taittinger family bought back the Champagne House that bears their name from the demerger of a giant multinational in 2006, and the wines - always good - have been on fine form ever since. The house style is one of elegance and clarity of fruit with a creamy texture.

Taittinger Brut Réserve	NV	€43.00
Taittinger Comtes de Champagne Blanc de Blancs	11/12/13	€162.00
Taittinger Prestige Rosé	NV	€58.00
Taittinger Comtes de Champagne Rosé	2007	€235.00
Taittinger Comtes de Champagne Rosé	2011/12	€245.00

VEUVE CLICQUOT

Often considered the Champagne of the yachting fraternity, with its distinctive yellow-orange livery, the ultra-consistent style of its Pinot-dominated wines is what has made Veuve Clicquot one of the world's most popular classic, dry Champagnes.

Veuve Clicquot Brut	NV	€50.00
Veuve Clicquot Vintage	2015	€72.00
Veuve Clicquot La Grande Dame	2015	€165.00
Veuve Clicquot Brut Rosé	NV	€60.00

SPARKLING

Langlois
Crémant de Loire
Brut Réserve
NV
90pts
Vinous

"Persistent tiny bubbles, aromas of lemon pie, lemon curd and a touch of herb and flint. In the mouth, it's warm and generous. Clementine, grapefruit and pear, with bright swirling acidity. Balanced with a creaminess on the clean finish. Very good value."

Sparkling wine is arguably the most technical style of wine in the world. Not only do these wines have to undergo a first fermentation in order to make alcohol, but also a second fermentation to produce the carbon dioxide giving the wine its fizz. This is done either in the same way as Champagne, where the second fermentation takes place in the bottle, or by using the tank method where it takes place inside a sealed tank.

Produced all around the world, sparkling wine comes in a huge range of styles, from bone dry to perfumed and floral.

ROSÉ

Rosé is produced in a variety of styles around the world, although perhaps the best known are those from Provence. Not only is this France's oldest wine region, having been making wine for over 2,600 years, but it is also the only one to focus on rosé.

It even has a research institute dedicated to the style. Dry, crisp and refreshing, these wines are a blend of regional varieties such as Grenache, Carignan and Syrah.

CHATEAU MINUTY

Château Minuty has been run by the Matton-Farnet family for over four generations and was one of only 23 estates in Provence to be awarded Cru Classé status in 1955. The vineyards on the slopes of Gassin and Ramatuelle, overlooking the bay of St Tropez, are farmed sustainably using no herbicides or pesticides, and only organic fertilisers.

DOMAINES OTT

The quintessential Provence rosé, Domaines Ott, with its instantly-recognisable bottle, is often simply a must-have, and for good reason. The wines are made from estate-grown grapes which are rigorously sorted (in a tricky vintage, only half of the usual quantity may be produced) to ensure the exceptional high quality for which they are known remains consistent from year to year.

FRANCE

France produces 7-8 billion bottles of wine every year, second only to Italy in terms of volume. A key part of French culture, with 27 billion hectolitres being drunk in France annually, wine is produced throughout the country in every style.

France's long-standing wine heritage gave birth to the appellation system, designed to preserve regional wine styles, which has been emulated all over Europe.

France is also the source of many international grape varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Syrah, Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay.

FRANCE WHITE ALSACE

Protected by the Vosges Mountains, Alsace is one of the driest regions in France and due to its northern latitude has very long hours of sunshine during the growing season. This helps to ripen the grapes and produce some of the world’s finest white wines.

The wines from Alsace are produced from noble varieties such as Riesling, Pinot Gris and Gewurztraminer and unlike elsewhere in France, here, the name of the grape must appear on the label. The best vineyard sites have been given Grand Cru status.

FRANCE WHITE LOIRE

Located between the centre and north of France, the Loire valley stretches 600 miles east to west and accounts for 8% of the country's vineyards including the famous appellations of Sancerre, Pouilly-Fumé, Muscadet and Vouvray. Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé are situated at the far eastern end of the Loire valley and arguably produce the world's greatest expressions of Sauvignon Blanc. Sancerre also produces high quality reds and rosés from Pinot Noir.

The Loire is considered to be France's most diverse wine region given the different climates and soil types such a large region offers, and as such, produces wines in every style.

"While this was a warm season leading to richness in many wines from the region, the Silex 2020 shows ripe fruit, but there's no sense of being overblown. The fine line that races through many wines relying on flint-based parcels is there, carrying the nectarine and oak-derived vanilla flavors, but its influence never tips into austerity nor firmness. There's a sense of tenderness that runs through its core while remaining light in body."

Burgundy, or Bourgogne, is the source of the most majestic Grand Cru and Premier Cru wines in the world. The polar opposite of Bordeaux with its grand Châteaux, this is a complex region of smallholders with over 3,000 vineyard owners. 15 million cases are produced annually from 100 different appellations spanning 26,000 hectares.

With reds made from Pinot Noir and whites from Chardonnay, these wines are not only long lived, but are also some of the most exceptional on the market.

WHITE BURGUNDY

The region is split into 5 sub-regions:

CHABLIS
COTE DE NUITS
COTE DE BEAUNE
COTE CHALONNAISE
MACONNAIS

The most significant of these
for the production of white wines:

CHABLIS
COTE DE BEAUNE

CHABLIS

A very well-known name in the world of wine, Chablis is a northern region of 4,900ha celebrated for producing Chardonnays which are austere in character and display steely, fresh minerality. There are 40 vineyards which are classified as Premier Cru, and 7 Grand Cru vineyards which overlook the town of Chablis and the River Serein.

Chablis Butteaux
François Raveneau
2020
94pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2020 Chablis 1er Cru Butteaux is lovely, unfurling in the glass with aromas of pear, orange oil, lemon, freshly baked bread, beeswax and oyster shell. Medium to full-bodied, taut and structured, it's a serious, concentrated wine with a lively spine of acidity and a long, mineral finish."

Chablis Preuses
William Fèvre
2020
95pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2020 Chablis Grand Cru Les Preuses is, if anything, even more electric than the formidable Valmur, wafting from the glass with notions of citrus oil, freshly baked bread, oyster jus and wet stones. Full-bodied, satiny and chiseled, it's racy and intense, with a bright spine of acidity and a long, intensely saline finish."

Vougeot le Clos

Domaine de la
Vougeraie
2020
93pts
Wine Spectator

"Smooth and charming, showing coffee, toffee, spice and citrus flavors, this white reveals a complex and delicate, almost creamy, texture, while the bright structure keeps this defined and long on the finish."

Quintessence
Vincent Girardin
2020
95pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2020 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru Quintessence de Corton-Charlemagne is brilliant, as has routinely been the case for this bottling for some time now. Unwinding in the glass with notes of crisp Anjou pear, white flowers, toasted bread, nutmeg and orange zest, it's full-bodied, deep and layered, with a concentrated, muscular, multidimensional profile that reflects its Aloxe-Corton origins."

Corton-Charlemagne
Louis Jadot
2018
94pts
The Wine Advocate

"An elegantly patinated bouquet of citrus oil, peach and apricot mingled with fresh bread, toasted almonds, mint and vanilla pod. This is full-bodied, rich and textural, with a fleshy core of fruit, chalky structure and bright acids. Its powerful, broad-shouldered profile reflects its origins in Les Pougets in the commune of Aloxe-Corton."

Meursault Charmes
Domaine
Comtes Lafon
2018
93-95pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2018 Meursault 1er Cru Charmes is also showing very well, revealing aromas of pear, crisp yellow orchard fruit, fresh peach, almond paste and white flowers, followed by a medium to full-bodied, satiny and muscular palate that's deep, concentrated and structured, with more texture and a more introverted profile than the more expressive Genevrières. This is another great bottle in the making."

Domaine Dujac
2016
91-93pts
The Wine Advocate

"It has a clean and pure bouquet with subtle scents of lychee, citrus peel and minerals, tight at first but opening up nicely. The palate is well balanced with crisp acidity, a slightly waxy texture, very focused with hints of peach skin and spice on the finish."

Puligny-Montrachet
Les Combettes

91-93pts
The Wine Advocate

"Aromas of pear, yellow orchard fruit, fresh pastry and orange oil introduce the 2018 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Combettes (Domaine Louis Jadot), a medium to full-bodied, round and enveloping wine that's among the richer, more powerful premiers crus in the range this year. Textural and multidimensional, it will offer a broad drinking window."

"Though delineated by its vibrant acidity, this white shows some weight, with a creamy texture enveloping flavors of vanilla, buttery croissant, lime blossoms and hazelnut. Lithe and persistent on the finish, where the notes of lime blossoms carry over, with accents of citronella and baking spices."

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Domaine Leflaive is currently crafting what are undoubtedly some of the greatest Chardonnay wines on earth. Production is tiny, demand is stratospheric and prices are deservedly high (and rising). The land is farmed entirely biodynamically which eliminates all chemical intervention. The concentration achieved in the wines is quite remarkable.

DOMAINE ETIENNE SAUZET

Domaine Etienne Sauzet, located in the village of Puligny-Montrachet, is arguably one of Puligny's finest domaines. Established in the early 20th century, today their vineyard holdings total 15 hectares and the domaine is run by great grand daughter of Etienne, Emilie, and her husband Benoit. With mostly premiers crus Puligny-Montrachet vineyards, they craft some of the most sought after white wines in Burgundy.

COTE DE NUITS

The Côte de Nuits is a 20km stretch forming the northern part of the Côte d'Or, Burgundy's 'golden slope', and it is here that most of the world's finest examples of Pinot Noir are produced. Named after the region's largest village, Nuits-Saint-Georges, 22 out of Burgundy's 23 red Grands Crus are located here, expressing a variety of styles. They tend to be weightier and deeper coloured than the Pinots produced on the Côte de Beaune. Gevrey-Chambertin, Vougeot and Nuits-Saints-Georges are known for their robust style of wine, whilst Chambolle-Musigny and Vosne-Romanée display finesse and elegance.

COTE DE BEAUNE

Despite the Côte de Beaune being well-known for its white wines, there is actually more red wine produced in the region. The Pinot Noirs from this southern half of the Côte d'Or show softness and finesse with the best examples coming from Beaune, Pommard and Volnay as well as the exceptionally powerful Grand Cru of Corton.

"Showing beautifully, wafting from the glass with a deep and complex bouquet of cherries, cassis and wild berries mingled with nuances of cinnamon, raw coca, dark chocolate and orange rind. Full-bodied, sumptuous and enveloping, it's deep and layered, with a seductively velvety attack, terrific concentration and a long, expansive finish. Beautifully balanced, it's bright and lively despite its broad shoulders. This has turned out especially well."

BEAUJOLAIS

Made exclusively from the Gamay grape, Beaujolais wines are often light bodied and fruity and delicious served chilled.

The better examples come from the Beaujolais Villages which are on granite hills and offer a more complex flavour profile. Fleurie and Morgon are two of the best known of these crus and can improve over 10 years or so, evolving to taste like Pinot Noir.

With 57 different appellations and 10,000 producers, Bordeaux is home to some of the world's finest Châteaux, producing long-lasting wines of exceptional quality. 88% of the production of Bordeaux is red wine, or Claret as it is known in the UK, made from Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bordeaux is also the source of dry whites made from Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon, and some of the world's longest-lived sweet wines from Sauternes.

The wines of the Bordeaux left bank were classified in 1855 and only five have attained First Growth status - Château Lafite, Château Mouton Rothschild, Château Latour, Château Margaux and Château Haut Brion. Those Châteaux that made it into any of the five tiers of this classification will have Grand Cru Classé on the label.

BORDEAUX

LEFT BANK

MEDOC

Home to many of the biggest names in Bordeaux, the Médoc is the most famous red wine region in the world and includes the renowned appellations of St Estèphe, Pauillac, St Julien and Margaux. Situated on the left bank of the Gironde estuary, the best vineyard sites are located on gravelly outcrops close to the river. The left bank is well suited to the production of Cabernet Sauvignon and the wines produced here will generally have this as the dominant grape in the blend.

ST ESTEPHE

This is the most northerly of the important communes of the Médoc. The wines here take on a rustic style due to the high proportion of clay in the soil. As a result they can seem austere in their youth, however they display good acidity and colour and are exceptionally long-lived.

PAUILLAC

Considering that Pauillac is a small region of only 23km<sup>2</sup>, three of the five First Growth Châteaux are located here – Château Latour, Château Lafite and Château Mouton Rothschild – with Grands Crus Classés representing 84% of the rest of the production. Fine, deep and gravelly soils mean that the vine roots reach a greater depth here than anywhere else in the Médoc. The resulting wines are intense and display great complexity.

ST JULIEN

St Julien is the smallest of the well-known Médoc communes at only 700ha with a uniform style thanks to the gravelly soils. Despite having no First Growth properties, St Julien is considered to offer the most consistent wines across the board, with impressive offerings year after year.

MARGAUX

The largest commune in the Médoc, and home to First Growth Château Margaux, Margaux is famous for producing the most elegant and alluring wines of the Left Bank. With the lightest and most gravelly soils in the Médoc, the finest examples of Margaux are intensely perfumed whilst also subtle and refined.

PESSAC-LEOGNAN/GRAVES

Pessac-Léognan is a district within Graves that was created in 1986 due to pressure from the vignerons who wanted to disassociate themselves from growers further south in the commune where the soils are much sandier. Pessac-Léognan is home to Château Haut Brion, the only First Growth property outside of the Médoc.

RIGHT BANK

POMEROL

Pomerol is the smallest of the prestigious Bordeaux appellations with around only 150 producers and 740 hectares of vineyards. Demand and prices for these wines are high given that many of these are boutique growers making circa 1,000 cases a year. Pomerol is dominated by Merlot, producing rich and smooth wines, and features some iconic properties such as Château Pétrus.

ST EMILION

Located on the right bank of the Dordogne, St Emilion is one of the most important Bordeaux appellations in terms of both quality and quantities produced. Merlot is the predominant grape variety and is perfectly suited to the clay and chalk-rich soils here. Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon are also grown. Given the high proportion of Merlot, these wines are much more approachable in youth than the more tannic examples produced on the left bank.

"Black raspberries, red currants and crushed plums plus touches of cigar boxes, violets and underbrush with a waft of tilled loam. Medium-bodied and elegantly styled with wonderful freshness and depth, it is compellingly earthy/minerally in the mouth with a frame of seductively silky yet very firm tannins and culminating in a very long, racy and pure finish."

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

Lafite consistently produces one of the wines of the vintage year in, year out. In a great vintage it is a reasonable assumption that Lafite will have produced the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon in the whole Médoc and fashioned a wonderful, long-lived, currant and cedar scented, ethereal beauty.

Château Lafite Rothschild	1er Cru Classé	2000	€1,595.00
Château Lafite Rothschild	1er Cru Classé	2003	€1,170.00

Château Lafite Rothschild	1er Cru Classé	2018	€1,150.00

Food pairing suggestion

Serve with grilled lamb, gratin dauphinois and green beans with garlic.

CHATEAU LATOUR

Latour is considered one of the most powerful, dense Pauillacs to be found and it needs to age. A very high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon (sometimes as much as 94%) lends the wine huge power and structure. Tasting notes include leather and spice, enhanced by intense blackcurrant fruit.

Château Latour	1er Cru Classé	2003	€1,095.00
Château Latour	1er Cru Classé	2005	€1,125.00

Château Latour

Vinous

"Deep and sensual to the core, the 2005 is utterly captivating. All the elements are so seamlessly put together. Graphite, crème de cassis, licorice, dark spice and lavender infuse the 2005 with so much energy.

More than anything else, though, the 2005 is a Latour of texture and resonance. Even after several hours, the 2005 is fresh and full of energy. Wines like this are just life affirming."

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES

Always something of a relative bargain, Lynch Bages was awarded a derisory Fifth Growth status in 1855, perhaps the greatest travesty in the whole classification, as the property regularly performs at 'super second' level. For many people, Lynch Bages epitomises the style of Pauillac with its cedary pencil shaving aromas and densely packed cassis fruit.

Vinous

"The 2015 Lynch-Bages has a very complex bouquet with layers of blackberry and bilberry fruit, crushed stone, cedar and graphite. It becomes earthier with aeration, with a hint of cough candy in the background. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-boned tannins. This is intense, backward, almost surly, yet the finish has incredible precision and persistence. Not to be underrated."

FRANCE RED BORDEAUX

Château
Mouton Rothschild
2005
98pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2005 Mouton Rothschild is evolving into unabashed, flamboyant notes of Christmas cake, plum preserves, chocolate-covered cherries, eucalyptus and crème de cassis with beautifully fragrant wafts of potpourri, incense, Indian spices and cigar box. Full-bodied, the palate performs vinous pirouettes with dazzling exotic spice, floral and earthy nuances, framed by firm, grainy tannins and fantastic freshness, finishing very long and mineral laced."

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Château Mouton Rothschild is the only Château to achieve reclassification since 1855 when the wines from Bordeaux were sorted into five tiers according to the prices they were fetching on the market at the time. This unique recategorisation took place in 1973 when Mouton Rothschild entered into the realm of the top five Châteaux (Premiers Grands Crus Classés). The bottles from this vineyard are famous not only for the powerful yet deceptively smooth wine inside, but also for the colourful labels brought out each year which are designed by a different artist for each vintage.

Pichon Baron
2010
96pts
Vinous

"The 2010 Pichon-Baron is simply one of the greatest wines produced under Christian Seely's tenure. It has a stunning bouquet with penetrating black fruit, wilted violet and a touch of sea spray, a distinctive marine note verging on shucked oyster shells.

The palate is very well balanced with fine grain tannins, layers of graphite infused black fruit and a very detailed, captivating finish. Brilliant."

CHATEAU PICHON BARON

Château Pichon Baron is one part of the split of the large Pichon estate. The fairytale château building and sumptuous label provide a glimpse of the beauty of the wine in the bottle. Occasionally overshadowed by the other half of the split, Château Pichon Lalande, the quality of more recent vintages of this wine is providing ample indication that the two properties were once one.

Château Pichon Baron	2ème Cru Classé	2005	€295.00
Château Pichon Baron	2ème Cru Classé	2010	€315.00
Château Pichon Baron	2ème Cru Classé	2011	€166.00

Food pairing suggestion

Lovely served with venison, lamb cutlets or a rich wild boar ragù.

CHATEAU PICHON LANDE COMTESSE

Pichon Lalande is made with a relatively high proportion of Merlot, and renowned as providing a softer, more tender version of Pauillac. The quality in vintages from the mid-eighties onwards has been nothing less than breathtaking.

CHATEAU PONTET-CANET

Proprietor Alfred Tesseron produces all his wines by wholly organic methods, a rarity in Bordeaux. A superstar wine from a property that borders Mouton Rothschild, it is outperforming its historic reputation by perhaps the greatest degree in the whole of Bordeaux.

Château Pontet-Canet	5ème Cru Classé	2009	€330.00

CHATEAU BEYCHEVELLE

According to legend, the name Beychevelle came from the Gascon 'bêcha vèla', meaning 'lower the sails'. This was a reference to the fact that ships passing by the château lowered their sails in deference and allegiance to Admiral Jean-Louis Nogaret de la Valette, the property's first owner under Henri III. To this day, Beychevelle has the prettiest and most dramatic impact on the riverbank of the Gironde estuary.

CLOS DU MARQUIS

Clos du Marquis is the second wine of Château Léoville Las Cases, cut from the same cloth and regularly a match for many high-classed growths. However, unlike with most second wines, the grapes actually come from a separate area of vineyards (rather than younger or less successful vines) surrounded on all sides by other Second Growths.

Clos du Marquis	2015	€110.00
Clos du Marquis	2017	€79.00

CHATEAU DUCRU BEAUCAILLOU

The name of this estate comes from the former owner, Mr. Ducru, and a description of the land it comprises: 'beau caillou' literally means 'beautiful pebble'. Pebbles and small stones permit good drainage of the soil, and their presence in the soils of the Médoc contributes hugely to the quality of the wines.

CHATEAU GLORIA

Château Gloria was not around in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux Châteaux, and was therefore not graded. Whilst no one can really say what level it might have been awarded, most commentators agree that Gloria offers tremendous value for money, and is a great example of the St Julien style.

CHATEAU LEOVILLE BARTON

Léoville Barton is owned by Anthony Barton, a gently unassuming man who thinks that all wine, including his own, should be for drinking, and not just investment. ## CHATEAU GISCOURS

The high percentage of Merlot in the blend accounts for the wine's depth and richness of flavour as well as its approachability in youth. A classic Margaux name, now fully revitalised and back to fulfilling its colossal potential.

CHATEAU KIRWAN

Mark Kirwan of Galway in Ireland gave his name to this Château back in the 18th century. The property's 40 hectares of vineyards have changed little in size and location since the 1855 classification. ## PÉTRUS

Probably the greatest and certainly the most famous red wine in all of Bordeaux, and perhaps the world. Because of their extraordinarily rigorous selection (sometimes they only use 50% of the crop), Pétrus consistently make the best possible wine every vintage. This impacts on the quantity produced each year (between 1000 and 3000 cases only) but maintains the wine's legendary reputation.

Pétrus	2003	€3,900.00
Pétrus	2008	€4,150.00
Pétrus	2009	€5,250.00
Pétrus	2011	€4,100.00

CHATEAU ANGELUS

Château Angélus was officially recognised as a Premier Grand Cru Classé in 1996. It has consistently delivered superb wines ever since. Powerful and massive, it has concentrated blackcurrant, redcurrant and leather on the palate given structure by firm tannins which soften with time. As with almost all St Emilion wines, this is made principally from Merlot.

Château Angélus	1er Grand Cru Classé	2010	€655.00
Château Angélus	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2015	€540.00
Château Angélus	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2016	€555.00

CHATEAU BEAU-SEJOUR BECOT

Beau-Séjour Bécot is in the upper echelon of Bordeaux right bank producers but, unusually, the property lost but then regained its Premier Grand Cru status as a result of vineyard acquisition. It was relegated to Grand Cru Classé after the incorporation of some non Premier Grand Cru vineyards, but having proven that they could produce not just typical, but great St Emilion wine, in 1996 it was reinstated as a Premier Grand Cru and deservedly so.

Château Beau-Séjour Bécot	1er Grand Cru Classé	2000	€159.00

"Deep garnet-purple in color, it tumbles effortlessly out of the glass with a gorgeous perfume of candied violets, preserved plums, black cherry compote and Ceylon tea with hints of kirsch, powdered cinnamon, chocolate box and fertile loam. The medium to full-bodied palate is packed with juicy black fruit layers, supported by plush, oh-so-soft tannins and well-knit freshness, finishing long and fragrant."

Château Cheval Blanc
2015

The Wine Advocate

"With coaxing, it unfurls to reveal beguiling notions of ripe black cherries, mulberries, licorice, baking spices and smoked meats with touches of incense and potpourri plus wafts of cast iron pan and crushed rocks. Full-bodied, very rich, very firm/taut and with very ripe, fine-grained tannins, it allows a glimpse at its incredible depth of flavors with a very long multi-layered finish. Wow."

Château Figeac
2018

97+pts
The Wine Advocate

"Deep garnet-purple in color, it soars out of the glass with opening notes of freshly crushed red and black cherries, mulberries and ripe, juicy plums, followed by hints of violets, damp soil, cedar chest, crushed rocks and pencil shavings. The medium-bodied, elegantly styled palate features bags of freshness and exquisitely ripe, beautifully poised tannins to support the bright, energetic black and red fruit layers, finishing on a lingering fragrant earth note."

CHATEAU CANON

Château Canon is one of the most prestigious estates in St Emilion. Renowned for its exceptional terroir and winemaking heritage, the property traces its roots back to the 18th century when it was first planted with vines by Jacques Canon, the naval officer from whom it takes its name. The estate is experiencing something of a renaissance, with recent vintages earning high praise from critics while, for now at least, still offering exceptional value.

Château Canon	1er Grand Cru Classé	2016	€169.00
Château Canon	1er Grand Cru Classé	2017	€110.00
Château Canon	1er Grand Cru Classé	2018	€149.00

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC

What really sets Cheval Blanc apart is its unusual mixture of grape varieties planted as a result of its position on the gravel outcrop that dominates St Emilion. The main grape is Cabernet Franc, augmented by the more expected Merlot and only a minuscule amount of Cabernet Sauvignon. The origin of the White Horse name is lost in time.

Château Cheval Blanc	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2008	€790.00
Château Cheval Blanc	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2010	€1,450.00
Château Cheval Blanc	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2014	€795.00
Château Cheval Blanc	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2015	€1,145.00

CHATEAU FIGEAC

Situated, like Cheval Blanc, on the gravel soils of the west of the region, Figeac uses around 70% Cabernet in its wine, making it the most Médoc-like of the right bank properties. A typographically exquisite label and classic winemaking also mark out this fine estate.

Château Figeac	1er Grand Cru Classé	2010	€395.00
Château Figeac	1er Grand Cru Classé	2014	€275.00
Château Figeac	1er Grand Cru Classé	2015	€345.00
Château Figeac	1er Grand Cru Classé	2018	€315.00

CHATEAU LA GAFFELIERE

Still in the hands of the Malet Roquefort family after more than three centuries, Château La Gaffelière is one of the oldest family-owned properties in St Emilion. A leper colony existed in the area during the medieval period, hence the name Gaffelière, deriving from the old French word 'gaffet' meaning 'leper'. Today the vineyards comprise 22 hectares with an enviable position between those of Château Ausone and Château Pavie.

Château La Gaffelière	1er Grand Cru Classé	2015	€99.00
Château La Gaffelière	1er Grand Cru Classé	2016	€110.00
Château La Gaffelière	1er Grand Cru Classé	2018	€110.00

Food pairing suggestion

"Violets, chocolate-covered cherries, crushed blueberries and eucalyptus over a core of preserved plums, kirsch, black raspberries and crème de cassis plus hints of licorice and chargrilled meat. Full-bodied and built like a brick house, it has a solid foundation of firm, super ripe, grainy tannins and seamless freshness interknit with the black fruit preserves and minerally layers, finishing very long and very decadent. Superb!"

CHATEAU PAVIE

The new style of production from Château Pavie, with more than the occasional overtone of Napa Merlot, is a departure for Bordeaux. However, the sensational wines reflect not only the local terroir, but also the warmth of vintages since 1990.

Château Pavie	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2016	€490.00
Château Pavie	1er Grand Cru Classé A	2018	€425.00

CHATEAU TROPLONG MONDOT

The late Christine Valette totally restored and revived the venerable Troplong Mondot estate with its 33 hectares of prime land in the heart of St Emilion. The vineyards are managed sustainably without the use of pesticides and around a third of the vineyards are cultivated only with horses. It came as no surprise in 1996 when the wines were elevated to 1er Grand Cru Classé status where they have remained ever since.

Château Troplong Mondot	1er Grand Cru Classé	2015	€169.00
Château Troplong Mondot	1er Grand Cru Classé	2016	€195.00
Château Troplong Mondot	1er Grand Cru Classé	2017	€129.00
Château Troplong Mondot	1er Grand Cru Classé	2019	€155.00

The northern Rhône contains some of the oldest vineyards in France producing elegant wines made from Syrah which are both powerful and have the capacity to age. Hermitage and Côte-Rôtie are the stars of the north, needing at least a decade to show at their best. St Joseph and Cornas produce more accessible examples whilst Crozes-Hermitage offers great value for money.

The valley floor opens out in the southern Rhône, with vines planted low to the ground in goblet formation to protect them from the strong mistral winds. The soils here are made up of round stones from the ancient river bed and these retain the warmth of the day, helping to fully ripen the grapes of the heat-loving Grenache. The best wine villages of the Côtes du Rhône have been given their own appellation such as Gigondas and the well-known Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

Following the Rhône River from north to south, this southern French wine region is 250 km in length with 200 communes producing wine in a wide range of styles.

"Sharing some similarities to the le Meal (yet its from a very different terroir), with its full-bodied, decadent, heavenly profile that somehow stays pure, poised and elegant, the 2012 Ermitage le Pavillon (767 cases) offers an extraordinary perfume of cassis, raspberries, crushed flowers, powdered rock and smoked earth."

The Wine Advocate

"The stunning 2021 Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvée Impériale comes from old vines in two sandy parcels—one in Pied Long and one in la Crau. Exotic aromas of orange zest, Campari-like spice and exquisitely ripe cherries appear on the nose, while the full-bodied palate is silky and creamy in texture yet airy and vibrant, with a long, zesty finish. It's a definite candidate for wine of the vintage, alongside its Mourvèdre-based stablemate, La Part des Anges."

"Pure, precise and bright on the nose, with delicately flinty and spicy aromas, the 2021 Oberhäuser Brücke Riesling Spätlese is a fabulously piquant and stimulating Spätlese with mineral intensity, complexity, grip and tension, as if there were electric wires in this wine. It's enormously vital and stimulating."

Germany has 102,000 hectares under vine and is the tenth largest wine producer in the world.
 Home to the world's greatest Rieslings, white grapes make up 65% of all plantings.
 The cool climate produces wines with incredible precision and focused fruit flavours balanced by finely tuned acidity.

Austrian wine recently came into its own following a wine scandal in 1985 which led to a complete restructuring of the industry, making Austria one of the top countries in the world for production standards. The wines display great elegance and acidity with delicate aromatics.

ITALY

Home to more than 2000 grape varieties and some of the oldest wine regions in the world, Italy produces more wine than any other country with the 2018 harvest reaching 48.5 million hectolitres. Italy has over 1 million vineyards under cultivation, producing wines from almost every region, renowned worldwide for their broad variety.

Each region has its own style with the most significant in terms of both quantity and quality being Piedmont, Tuscany and Veneto.

Italy's best-known grapes are Sangiovese, Nebbiolo, Pinot Grigio, Barbera and Montepulciano alongside international varieties, in particular Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot.

PIEDMONT

Located in the north west of Italy, Piedmont has a continental climate influenced by its proximity to both the Alps and the Ligurian Apennines. Since Roman times, Piedmont has been considered the fine wine capital of Italy and has the country's highest proportion of DOC and DOCG wines even though it only accounts for 7% of its production.

Gavi DOCG is Piedmont's best-known dry white wine made from the Cortese grape grown around the town of Gavi itself. Whites are also made from the indigenous Roero near the town of Arneis. Nebbiolo is the king of red wine grapes in Piedmont and is planted on all of the best sites. Nebbiolo, the variety behind Barbaresco and Barolo, produces wines with pronounced aromas of tar, roses and truffles which age fantastically, often needing at least ten years before they really come into their own.

Barbera and Dolcetto are grown around the towns of Asti and Alba producing easier drinking styles that are more accessible from a younger age.

BARBARESCO

A third of the size of neighbouring Barolo, and 50 years younger, Barbaresco is renowned for producing some of Italy's finest wines. Thanks largely to the efforts of Angelo Gaja, the region has been recognised for its real potential and it was granted DOCG status in 1980.

BAROLO

Barolo DOC was founded in 1966 and upgraded to DOCG status in 1980, which seems appropriate given that this is not only Italy's most famous wine region, but is also widely regarded to be its best. Reds are made from 100% Nebbiolo which capitalises on the long, warm summers and the unique terroir, with each village sitting upon its own hill surrounded by vineyards.

TUSCANY

Italy's oldest wine region, Tuscany is also its fifth largest, producing the third highest amount of DOCG quality wines despite only producing around 6% of the country's volume of wine. This is largely due to the region's poor soils which encourage producers to grow small yields of high quality grapes.

Tuscany has a unique terrain with more than two thirds of it being hilly which benefits the predominant grape variety, Sangiovese, as it needs direct sunlight to ripen fully. Two of Italy's most famous wines are found in Tuscany – Chianti and Brunello di Montalcino.

SUPER TUSCAN

The term 'Super Tuscan' first emerged in the 1970s to describe a new wave of wine being made outside of DOC/DOCG regulations to a very high standard, and commanding high prices to match. Many of these wines achieved a cult following and as a result, the Italian classification system was changed to give these DOC or DOCG status. Some producers still prefer to use IGP Toscana.

95pts

The Wine Advocate

"This vintage is delicate but determined, powerful but fragile all at the same time. The bouquet is shy to start off and requires (at this young stage when I tasted the wine) ample time to aerate. Once it unwinds, the wine offers fresh citrus, orchard fruit, toasted almond and spice. Only partial malolactic fermentation is completed, so the wine's energy and inner nerve is very much intact. Flint and mineral play important supporting roles."

"The St. Michael-Eppan 2020 Alto Adige Chardonnay Sanct Valentin shows zesty fruit with chopped apple, quince and papaya. There is a spicy element as well with a combination of ginger and saffron. "The 2022 Bianco pleases on many levels, wafting up with an unexpected fruit richness, combining young peach and apricot with white flowers and almond paste. It's round and soothing, yet with a stunning mix of candied lime and saline minerals up front that adds contrast. Sweet inner florals complement ripe pit fruits. The 2022 cleans up beautifully, long and with a salty flair, as it tapers off crunchy, full of tension, yet mouth-watering all the same."

Popularity for Italian fine wines has recently soared due to the fact that not only do they need less cellaring than their French counterparts, but also offer incredible value for money. Red wines are produced in every style from all over the country using predominantly local grape varieties, with more international ones being planted as the demand for Super Tuscans increases.

"The 2020 Barbera d'Asti La Crena is soft and voluptuous from the outset. In this vintage, La Crena is especially forward and fruit-driven. The 2020 will need at least a few years for the classic La Crena aromas and flavors to emerge fully. Hints of gravel, crushed rocks and dried herbs linger, hinting at what is to come. La Crena usually blossoms with time in bottle. I won't at all be surprised if that happens here as well."

A host of graphite, savory herb, menthol, licorice, lavender, smoke and dark-fleshed fruits meld into the huge, tannic finish."

"One of my personal favorites, the 2018 Barolo Le Vigne is savory in character and packed with dark fruit. Ripe cherry and redcurrant cedes to spice, licorice and fragrant rose. The oak is integrated, but there are added accents of spice and dark tar."

"A layered and generous wine that reflects the main takeaways offered by this very successful vintage. The Castiglione reveals generous richness and concentrated cherry fruit with dark saturation and good structure that comes from the thicker skins developed on Nebbiolo grapes this year. It concludes with a salty mineral note that adds focus and elegance."

"Wonderfully floral, displaying dusty dried roses and violets complicated by notes of crushed chalk and spiced blackberries. This is silky in texture yet lifted in feel, with a pleasant inner sweetness and crisp wild berry fruits contrasted by resonant hints of candied orange. The Marne 180 finishes structured and remarkably fresh, leaving a bitter dark chocolate twang that lingers on."

"Wild herbs, crushed pomegranates, dusty rose and savory spice define the wildly exotic 2017 Brunello di Montalcino. Its textures are silky and pliant, but with a vibrant streak of acidity and mineral tones that add a more grippy yet jovial feel, as potent red fruits and lavender tones slowly saturate toward the close. Fine tannins come forward through the medium-length finale, as this tapers off to hints of sour citrus, rose and clove."

"The 2021 Siepi (in a heavy glass bottle) opens to sweet fruit nuances of cooked cherry, blackberry preserves, cinnamon and nutmeg. "There is no overstating the sheer power and richness of this iconic vintage of Italy's groundbreaking Merlot. Despite that considerable mass, this Masseto remains delicate and graceful. There is great tightness and laser focus to the fruit."

"A wine of extreme complexity and precision. It offers monumental depth with profound layers of black fruit, coffee, licorice and baking chocolate. This Ornellaia delivers glossy shine and a polished texture that segues to important richness, concentration and textural fiber. It wraps thickly over the palate, imparting waves of sweet dark fruit and dark spice that linger for many long minutes."

"The 2020 Sassicaia is a bold, rapturous wine. Dark, fleshy and expansive on the palate, the 2020 offers up scents of blackberry jam, gravel, spice, new leather, licorice and crème de cassis. Potent tannins are nearly buried by the sheer intensity of the fruit. Sassicaia is never a huge wine, the 2020 does seem to have an extra dimension of textural intensity. It's an intensity that is hugely appealing."

Solaia Antinori
2016
100pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2015 vintage shows more overall opulence and sweetness that extends to the pronounced textural richness of the mouthfeel. The 2016 vintage, on the other hand, is more chiseled and sharp with mineral shadings of campfire ash and graphite at the rim of its dark fruit. The mouthfeel is more streamlined and tight at its core, suggesting that the wine will unfold and soften beautifully with time. The personalities of the two wines are distinct, yet my admiration for each is identical."

TENUTA SAN GUIDO

This is the winery that coined the phrase ‘Super Tuscan’, producing Cabernet blends from the 1940s due to the Marchese’s love for Bordeaux wines. Originally only able to call these wines Vino da Tavola, it is a testament to the quality of Sassicaia that the DOC Bolgheri Sassicaia was created specifically for it. Guidalberto is the second wine of this incredible winery.

SOLAIA

Solaia (derived from the Italian word for sun) was first produced in 1978 from a parcel of Cabernet within the Tignanello vineyard that was deemed to be of such high quality that the Marchese decided to vinify it separately. Since then the quantity has increased from the original 3,600 bottles and the Solaia vineyard now consists of 20ha. Solaia is only produced in the best vintages and truly reflects its terroir. ## TIGNANELLO

Antinori's flagship wine, Tignanello, was the first wine in Tuscany to blend the local Sangiovese with non-traditional varieties, and became one of the focal points of the Tuscan revolution that occurred over the latter part of the 20th century. A blend of 80% Sangiovese, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc, aged for 12 months in small oak barriques, this classic Super-Tuscan combines Chianti-like suppleness with Bordeaux-esque style.

Spain is the third largest producer of wines in the world with over a million acres under vine, more than any other country. Given the diversity of the country's landscape and climates, and the fact that Spain is home to 60 regional DOs, it's hardly surprising that it produces wines in a variety of styles.

From the fresh whites made from Albariño in Rías Baixas to top end reds from Rioja and Ribera del Duero, there is a huge amount of exciting wine available, offering fantastic value for money.

RIOJA

Spain's most famous wine region, Rioja is situated in the north of the country just south of the Cantabrian Mountains. The wines are normally a blend of grapes, the majority being Tempranillo with some Garnacha and Graciano.

Traditional style Rioja is distinguished by long periods of barrel ageing, whereas the modern style favours the fruit and freshness of Tempranillo. Rioja is only ever released onto the market when it is ready to drink and as such, offers incredible value for money.

"The 2021 Pinot Noir Willamette Valley overdelivers for the price. It's bursting with scents of cranberry, rhubarb, allspice, mushrooms and bitters. The medium-bodied palate pairs highly concentrated, spicy flavors with dusty tannins and fireworks of fresh acidity, and it has a long, layered finish."

"The palate is medium to full-bodied with a densely packed mid-palate and oodles of freshness framed by very ripe, finely grained tannins and laced with compelling earthy accents. It offers incredible vibrancy with tons of black and red fruit sparkle in the mid-palate leading to a provocative mineral element on the very long finish. If I could give more than 100 for this one, I would."

Whilst South America has been making wine since the 1500s, it wasn't until plantings of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon and Carménère were brought over from France in 1800 that Argentina and Chile started making wine of notable quality. Now producing wine across all price points, the industry is booming, with Argentina famous for Malbec from Mendoza, and Chile for fantastic cool climate Cabernet Sauvignon, Carménère and Sauvignon Blanc.

Shiraz and Chardonnay make up 44% of total plantings, with increasing amounts of Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Noir being grown.

Thanks to the hard work of several very talented winemakers and the privatisation of the state-controlled winemaking cooperative, the South African wine industry has taken a huge change in direction in the last 20 years. Previously known for cheap wines that often ended up being distilled into brandy before hitting the shelves, the now vibrant industry is earning a reputation for some of the most exciting wines on the market. South Africa is famous for Chenin Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon as well as the indigenous Pinotage.

The Wine Advocate

"The 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Kayli Morgan Vineyard has a medium garnet-purple color and is a little closed to begin, giving up red and black currants, violets, lilacs and spice box plus chocolate-covered coffee beans, menthol, tilled soil and cardamom. The palate is full-bodied, concentrated and built like a brick house, with loads of floral sparks and a very long, mineral-laced finish. Through the roof."

Tax-free delivery cannot be arranged after the goods have been delivered.
